

Fatal Riot-Fire Near Indianapolis Is Being Probed

INDIANAPOLIS, June 2, (INS)—A military board of inquiry today investigated the riot and fire at the disciplinary barracks at Fort Benning, Ind., which resulted in the death of a soldier and 500 others.

Pvt. Elton Henry, of Panama, Kan., was killed by a flame-throwing tank and 49 other soldiers were injured. The riot broke out at 10:30 p.m. when the barracks were being burned by the rioters.

Military authorities revealed that the rioters included American soldiers, as well as German, Italian and Japanese.

Local Sergeant In Combat Engineers
En Route To Resume Duties
With Outfit

Mrs. Mary Julian, of 424 Erie street, received the Medal of the Purple Heart from her husband, Sgt. Benny O. Julian, which has been awarded him for slight wounds received in Germany on April 17.

Sgt. Julian was confined this past month at an army hospital in Paris, France, and is at present en route to rejoin his outfit, of Combat Engineers attached to the 13th Corps of the Ninth Army, somewhere in Germany.

He has been in service since August 21, 1942, and arrived in Europe August 27, 1944. Sgt. Julian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Julian, 304 Florence avenue.

YANKS MOVE UP UNDER TANK COVER ON OKINAWA

AN AMERICAN TANK SPITS FLAME at a Japanese position on Okinawa as Marines drive forward behind it. The flames are from the tank's own engine, which has been hit by enemy fire. The Marines are moving up behind the tank, which is providing cover for them. (International)

Eugene M. Cozza Slightly Wounded

Pharmacist Mate Gets Purple
Heart For Wounds Received
In South Pacific

Pharmacist Mate, third class, Eugene M. Cozza, of 615 Peach street, received slight wounds in the Pacific area on April 28. The U. S. Navy department notified his family.

The young seaman received a slight wound in his leg and according to a letter from him, he is getting along nicely.

The week his family received from him the Medal of the Purple Heart, awarded to him for his wounds received.

Seaman Cozza has been in service for two years, and was shipboard January 1943.

A brother, Chas. Pharmacist Mate, also is in the Pacific.

Musical Festival At Rose Avenue School

On Friday evening at Rose Avenue School, 800 E. 10th street, a musical festival program was given by the students of the school. The program was directed by Miss Verle Ann Smith and Miss Mildred Giesman. There were about 300 present.

Participating numbers were given by: Carol Martin, Rose Marie Zick, Ronald Butler, Angela Foster, Ron Dick, Boyl, Anna W. Dier, Carl and Sandra Lauer, Dier, and the school choir. The program was a success and the students were well received.

Italian Prisoners Of War On Strike

FORT DODGERS, Utah, June 2, (INS)—Striking Italian prisoners of war at Fort Dodge held fast to their refusal to work today and remained in their barracks.

Col. F. L. Hogan, post commander, said that the 184 striking prisoners would remain in their barracks until they agree to return to work.

The prisoners struck Wednesday night in protest against working longer hours than civilians at the post. They specifically refused to go back to work despite heavy rain.

They are being held in an open field with only one blanket each with a small tent for shelter.

Local USO Open To U. S. Service Until War's End!

Doors Of USO Open To All In Uniform Until Final Victory Is Officially Announced

President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Executive Secretary Robert M. La Follette announced to the public in general the USO policy on the question of whether or not it should be open to all in uniform.

The USO will remain open and in full operation to all U. S. service men and women until the final end of the war. The same welcome will be given to all persons in uniform, whether or not they are in the line of duty.

A new plan of the USO is being developed at this time. However, in regard to the USO, it is the policy of the USO to remain open to all in uniform until the final end of the war. The same welcome will be given to all persons in uniform, whether or not they are in the line of duty.
